

But when you came back to your home, something had happened that troubled you a lot.

Yeah! This morning, I came at my home and I was really surprised, because I found the table dressed, but nothing changed, and all that... it was clean. And I called my girl and my boy and no answer. So I just learned that yes, they're denied. At 7 they came for the third time and they took all the people who were here. That's me, my two children, my boy fifteen years old, my girl 18 years old, her friend, I don't know, 19 – 20 years old. Two boy and girl friends of theirs. 17 – 18. And my sister, who came to give them money, because for a week, I was not there and everything. They took all the people.

Why do you think your children were...

I would like you to tell me so, why? You know, why? I don't know at all. Because I am... I don't know.
